NAIDOC DAY

This week we celebrated NAIDOC Day across our school. It was a great opportunity to share in the history and rich culture of our local Aboriginal community. We were very lucky to have Pop Basil, a local Aboriginal elder, share stories and information about traditional tools. He also read us the story "Echidna Finds a Friend" in Noongar language. Ross Storey played the didgeridoo and helped us build a mia mia.

The Shooting Stars girls from Narrogin Senior High School showed us some traditional dance moves and sang the wanju (welcome) song with the school choir. We all got to try some kangaroo stew and delicious damper made by Raelene Kickett. It was a fantastic day. Thankyou to everyone who came along, joined in and helped out. Mrs Cowcher

Library News

Congratulations to Rowan Bradford who won our library drawing competition with his awesome drawing of 'Mentos Man'. 'Mentos Man' has mentos all over his body that he uses on his coke bottle feet to fly. He can stick his enemies to the ground with Mentos, he has cute eyes, he makes people smile and he gives out free mentos tubes to everyone he sees. Well done, Rowan! Second prize went to Winter Alexander and Maiya Allinson with their Superhero, 'Twilight Woman'. Third place was 'Super Toady' drawn by Cruz Alexander. Honourable Mentions include: Foody Fever by Casey Jacobs, the giant robot who feeds the homeless and 'Fart Boy' by Sienna Blechynden, who farts to fly. Thank you to everyone who participated, you're all amazing! Miss Savage

SCHOOL BUS SERVICES 2020

As you may be aware, orange School Bus Services are accepting transport assistance applications for 2020. A transport assistance application needs to be approved by the School Bus Service prior to students using a bus if they are starting school for the first time, changing schools or moving address. Students who are already approved to use an orange school bus and are not changing their arrangements do not need to re-register. Students also do not need to re-register if they are transitioning from kindergarten hours to standard pre-primary hours.

Parents can fill out applications either online at www.schoolbuses.wa.gov.au, or can contact School Bus Services on 9326 2463 for a paper application form.
